Among its repertoire of captivating productions, "Henry – Mann in Weiss" emerges as a luminous beacon, illuminating the stage with its poignant narrative and resplendent melodies.

Directed by Christian Lusser using the concept by Elizabeth Breuer and brought to life by an ensemble of gifted performers, this musical masterpiece invites audiences on a journey through the life and legacy of Henry Dunant, the visionary founder of the Red Cross. Set against the backdrop of the tumultuous Battle of Solferino in 1859, "Henry – Mann in Weiss" transports viewers to a time of conflict and chaos, where the horrors of war collide with the resilience of the human spirit.

The original compositions by Michael Siskov serve as the heartbeat of the production, evoking a range of emotions from heartache to hope with each haunting melody and triumphant anthem. Complementing the musical score is the choreography by Erwin Johann Hoyer, which adds another layer of depth and dimension to the production. The choreography enhances the storytelling, allowing the emotions of the characters to come alive through movement. Whether conveying the chaos of battle or the camaraderie of comradeship, every dance sequence is executed with precision and passion, captivating audiences and transporting them deeper into the world of the play.

At its core, "Henry – Mann in Weiss" is a celebration of the human spirit and the power of compassion to transcend even the darkest of times. Through the lens of Henry Dunant's journey, audiences are reminded of the importance of empathy, solidarity, and the pursuit of a more just and humane world. As the characters grapple with their own struggles and triumphs, viewers are invited to reflect on their own capacity for kindness and the impact that even the smallest acts of compassion can have on the world around them.

The ensemble cast of "Henry – Mann in Weiss" delivers performances of exceptional depth and authenticity, breathing life into their characters with nuance and subtlety. Each member of the cast brings a unique perspective to the stage, enriching the narrative with their collective talent and dedication.
